Numb. 1526

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday July 1. to Monday July 5. 1680.

Lisbon, June 5.

THe Count d' Eſtree ſailed from hence, as we told you in our laſt, with the men of War under his Command, bound according to the general report, for the Weſt Indies. The Pyrats of Sally have of late very much infeſted theſe Coaſts; but the Chevalier de Chaſteau-Renaud is with ſome French men of War in ſearch of them.

Stockholme, June 12. The King and Queen will not come hither till the beginning of the next month, againſt which time ſeveral Triumphal Arches are making, as well as other preparations, for their Reception; after which the Queen will be Crowned in this City, and that Solemnity is likewiſe preparing for. As well the French as Daniſh Ambaſſadors keep with the Court, which is at preſent at a place called Orebro; but they have ſent greateſt part of their Family with their Baggage hither.

Warſaw, June 20. The laſt week the great Tower of Cracow was burnt with Lightning; In the Ruines was afterwards found an Iron Cheſt, in which was a great many Medals, and among the reſt, one, which is believed to be of Lechus, Founder of this Monarchy, who reigned Anno 550. We have advice that the Tartars are drawing together in two Bodies, the one near Caminiec, and the other near Niemirow; and that the Turks are paſſing the Danube with a reſolution to march directly to our Frontiers, to adjuſt the differences they have with us concerning the Limits, with their Swords in their hands. There are lately come to Caminiec two or three thouſand Janizaries, who were a Convoy to a great Train of Artillery that's brought thither. The King and Queen intend to go and paſs ſome time at Jawarow in Ruſſia; and at the ſame time the Marquis de Bethune, Ambaſſador from France, will part hence, to aſſiſt as Mediator at the Conferences that are appointed to be held on the Frontiers of Moſcovy, for the determining the differences that are between the two Crowns concerning the Limits. The Moſcovite Ambaſſadors here continue to Treat with the Commiſſioners of this Crown, about the League againſt the Turks.

Madrid, June 20. This Court was in a great deal of joy, occaſioned by the belief it had of the Queens being with Child, which it ſeems proves otherwiſe. This Crown deſigning to have a Squadron of Men of War at Sea, the Prince of Parma is made choice of to Command it, and accordingly he is expected here very ſuddainly. We do not yet hear what Reſolution our King has taken in the matter concerning the Title of Duke of Burgundy, which the French demand he ſhould quit. It has been for ſome time diſcourſed at Court, that the Duke de Villa Hermoſa (whoſe time is out) will very ſpeedily return from his Government of the Spaniſh Netherlands, but it is not ſaid, who is to be his Succeſſor.

Vienna, June 27. This City which was almoſt become Deſolate, begins to flouriſh again, and is very much enlivened by the aſſurance we have, that the Imperial Court will in a ſhort time return hither. The Reſident of the Elector of Brandenburg is already come hither, as ſeveral other perſons of quality daily do. We have Advice from Hungary, that a Battle has been lately fought between the Turks and Moſcovites, and that the latter had the advantage, though the loſs of Men had been great on both ſides.

Hamburg, July 5. The French, it's ſaid, uſe great endeavors in Sweden, to bring that Crown into a new Allyance with them, of which, among others, this ſhould be one condition, That the King of Sweden ſhould maintain conſtantly in the Dutchy of Bremen an Army of 20000 Men, of which, one half ſhould be of French Troops, and Commanded by French General Officers; what there is of reality in it, time muſt ſhew. The Margrave of Baden is gone from Berlin, where he was very well received by the Elector of Brandenburg, to confer with the Princes of Lunenburg, whom it's not doubted, but he will find in the ſame good diſpoſitions to contribute what in them lies, to the Peace and Security of the Empire. Yeſterday came hither from Zell the French Envoye, the Marquis d' Arcy, but will make no long ſtay in this City. The King and Queen of Denmark arrived the 30th paſt at Oldenburg.

Strasburg, July 1. The French have made themſelves Maſters of the Caſtle of Falkenburg, having employed their Cannon and their Bombs one day only againſt it, and now we are expecting what Enterprize they will take next in hand; whatever it be, they are likely to ſucceed in it, for there appears not any force on foot to make head againſt them. The Marquis de Boufflers is with a Body of Horſe and Dragoons at Paltzburg, from whence he will march towards the Saar.

Francfort, July 3. The Governor of the Caſtle of Falkenburg has at laſt ſurrendred the ſame to the French, who attacked it only one day, but during that ſhort time, made ſuch uſe of their Bombs and their Cannon, that the Garriſon deſired a Treaty. Some think the Governor will be queſtioned by the Elector Palatine, for having been wanting in Defence of the Place, which it's ſaid, was capable of a much better, than was made. We are aſſured that Levies will be begun very ſuddainly in theſe parts for the Emperors Service.

Berlin, July 3. The Margrave of Baden, the Emperors Envoye, is gone from hence, very well ſatisfied with the aſſurances our Elector gave him of his reſolution to remain firm in the Intereſt of the Empire; he is gone to the Courts of the Princes of Lunenburg, and in his return home will call upon ſeveral other Princes, to let them know the Emperors Sentiments in the preſent poſture of affairs, and